Seattle University Nondiscrimination Policy

Seattle University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity, political ideology or status as a Vietnam-era or special disabled veteran in the administration of any of its education policies, admission policies, scholarship and loan programs, athletics, and other school-administered policies and programs, or in its employment related policies and practices.

All university policies, practices and procedures are administered in a manner consistent with Seattle University's Catholic and Jesuit identity and character. Inquiries relating to these policies may be referred to the university's assistant vice president for Human Resources and Equal Opportunity Officer.

Consistent with the requirements of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 and its implementing regulations, Seattle University has designated three individuals responsible for coordinating the university's Title IX compliance. Students or employees with concerns or complaints about discrimination on the basis of sex in employment or an education program or activity may contact any one of the following Title IX coordinators:

Jerry Huffman

SEATTLE UNIVERSITY

Mission

Seattle University is dedicated to educating the whole person, to professional formation, and to empowering leaders for a just and humane world.

Vision

We will be the premier independent university of the Northwest in academic quality, Jesuit-Catholic inspiration and service to society.

Values

- Care: We put the good of students first.
- Academic Excellence: We value excellence in learning with great teachers who are active scholars.
- Diversity: We celebrate educational excellence achieved through diversity.
- Faith: We treasure our Jesuit-Catholic ethos and the enrichment from many faiths of our university community.
- Justice: We foster a concern for justice and the competence to promote it.
- Leadership: We seek to develop responsible leaders committed to the common good.
