RENEE RASSILYER-BOMERS

EXPERIENCE

2007-current Swedish Hospital Medical Center Seattle, WA

Professional Development Specialist

- Empower nurses to reach clinical and professional excellence via mentoring, and providing nurses with career development tools.
- Assist managers re-recruit experienced nurses
- Follow-up with new graduate nurses and give preceptors the support to provide excellent orientation.

2005-current Seattle University Seattle, WA

Instructor

- Clinical, laboratory, and theoretical instruction for BSN students.
- Laboratory instructor for APNI students in graduate MSN program.

2003–2005 Seattle University Seattle, WA

Teaching Assistant

- Taught Health Assessment Lab for Sophomore nursing students.

2003-2006 Swedish Hospital Medical Center Seattle, WA

Registered Nurse

- Nursing care for 6-7 patient load on 7SW Med/Surg floor.
- Preceptor for nursing students and new nurse graduates.
- Charge nurse 1-2 times weekly

2002-2003 Swedish Hospital Medical Center Seattle, WA

Nurse Technician

- Worked in coordination with registered nurses in providing care for medical/surgical patients on 7SW.

2000-2003 Dynacare Laboratories Seattle, WA

Phlebotomist

- Completed blood draws and arterial blood gases on hospital patients at Swedish Hospital Medical Center.
- Trained phlebotomists and nurses in neonatal/pediatric blood collection.

EDUCATION

2007 University of Southern Indiana

- Lipid Management Certificate Program

2003-2005 Seattle University Seattle, WA

- Masters of Science in Nursing/Family Practice ARNP

1999-2003 Seattle University Seattle, WA

- Bachelors of Science in Nursing
- Bachelors of Arts in Humanities

ACTIVITIES

National Honor's Society, National Student Association Member, National Student Nursing Association Member, Seattle University Nursing School President, Naef Scholar, Sigma Theta Tau Member, and Alpha Sigma Nu Member, PCNA Member, Faculty Advisor for Student Nurses Association.