

COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES QUICK FACTS

2012-13

David V. Powers, Dean

Enrollment

- Largest college at Seattle University
- Undergraduate: 1999
- Graduate: 409

Class Size

- Average: 20 students
- Faculty-to-student ratio: 1:14

Faculty (2011 data)

- Total faculty: 251
- Full-time: 180; 112 tenured/tenure-track
- Part-time: 71
- Endowed chairs: 2
- Faculty-student engaged research opportunities

Undergraduate Education

- 42 undergraduate majors
- 37 undergraduate minors

Recent National student Awards (past 5 years)

- 5 Truman Scholars
- 7 Fulbright Scholars
- #1 ROTC unit (2010)

Core Curriculum

- Required of all SU undergraduate students; additional requirements for Arts and Sciences majors
- Elective specializations
  - Core Honors, a three-year program by invitation only
  - Diversity, Citizenship, and Social Justice
  - Faith and Great Ideas

Extracurricular Activities

- 16 student clubs/ academic societies
- Debate Team
- Writing Center
- Fragments, student literary journal
- Model UN
- Student Executive Council
- Graduate Student Advisory Council

Student fellowships/Independent Study/Internships

- Dean's Research Fellowships and other fellowships available for summer and academic year
- For-credit independent study
- For-credit, unpaid, and paid internships in community organizations

International Components

- Top-ranked university for faculty-led, for-credit, education-abroad courses; programs in 25 countries, including Ghana, India, China, and Japan
- Global Awareness Program certificate for students in any major in any college
- Financial support for student engagement in international education
- International student and faculty exchanges
- International scholars program
- Week-long International Days activities and annual student International Photo Competition

Graduate Education

- MFA in Arts Leadership (MFA)
- MA in Criminal Justice (MA)
- Certificate in Criminal Justice
- Master of Nonprofit Leadership
- MA Organization Systems Renewal (MA)
- Master of Public Administration
- MA in Psychology
- Master of Sport Administration and Leadership

Costs

- Undergraduate tuition: $34,200 (plus room and board)
- Graduate tuition: $651-$700 per credit hour

Financial Assistance (2011-12)

- Undergraduate aid (all SU students)
  - Average award: $23,718
  - Percent of students receiving aid from all sources: 86.8%
- Graduate aid (all SU non-law students)
  - Average award: $20,032
  - Percent of students receiving aid from all sources: 70.6%

Visit our Website
seattleu.edu/artsci

Find us on Facebook
facebook.com/artsci