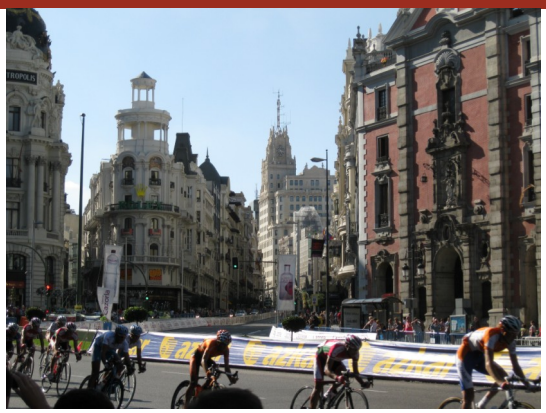
Comillas university exchange
Madrid, spain



Program Overview

The Comillas Exchange provides students with an opportunity to earn credits towards their major while studying in Spain. All courses will be taught in Spanish and therefore this program is designed for students who have completed at least two years of Spanish language. This program is a unique opportunity for highly independent students to continue to take courses in their major field while simultaneously improving their Spanish language proficiency.

Host Organization

The Universidad Pontificia Comillas, a Jesuit institution established in 1904, has approximately 7,700 undergraduate students. Dedicated to international education, Comillas has over 70 exchange programs, which provide opportunities to interact with students from all over the world.
