Basic Class Information, Competencies and Course Requirements:

Manual for Ministerial and Theological Integration (Chapter2) contains the course description, goals / focus for Winter Quarter, course description and requirements, reading both required and recommended and grade distribution.

The Approach

As you continue your ministerial internship this quarter, you will actively explore your call to ministry by actually doing the ministry of the church – service to the people of God. Your internship will be the context of your primary work as a person doing professional ministry.

This quarter explores the impact of cultural history and myths on your personal identity and how this affects your professional ministry. You will explore your unique cultural identity and examine how your family of origin and community influences your values, beliefs, prejudices and view of justice. You will investigate how personal or cultural myths enhance or impede your ability to minister.

You will also have an opportunity to examine the process of emotional influence and identify how you are affected by the stories of others. In the context of this analysis, you will have the opportunity to deepen your awareness of healthy boundaries.

A Few Details:

- Unless otherwise discussed, you will need to bring enough copies of your work for each member of the class including the faculty.
- The Integration / Learnings paper 1 page – (unless otherwise discussed) will be due one week after you have presented in class. The Integration / Learnings paper is bundled with your prior paper which has been critiqued by peers.
- Permission to keep a classmate’s paper must be given by the author.
- Class presentations are the occasion to invite your colleagues to participate in your learning. You need to set the tone, identifying what you want from your peers. Be specific and concrete, manage your time, and name the central issue or question you are addressing. Do not read a paper to the class, in many cases your peers have already read your paper.
- The class will create norms or principles of our common life.

Meanings and / or Things That Work Best:

- This class is built on the profound assumption that you are a person of worth and value, you do not need to prove yourself to the faculty, one another or even to God.
- Participation in class includes peer evaluation, attentiveness to the needs of the self as well as others, identification of your own learnings, prayer, faith sharing and written and oral presentations. Integrity is at the heart of ministry.
- Questions are almost always more important than answers. Make visible, in oral and written presentations, the questions you are raising of your self, your internship experience, and your theological understandings.
- A due sense of accountability for your ministerial placement, committing to growth and development toward required competencies. Here is a chance to experience you as accountable to yourself and God in a sustained fashion.
- A journal is a helpful tool for recording your experiences, readings, peer evaluations and interactions which make up your daily journey. While journaling, you will want to be attentive to the social, cultural and political elements of the culture (newspaper / TV / books), the faith tradition and your own insights, thoughts, and feelings. You will not be asked to share your journal writings unless you so choose.
- In oral presentations and written work it is most critical to name, tag, briefly describe, and give evidence of personal / professional learnings that you have gleaned in the theological reflection and peer evaluations. A helpful tool is to look for, name, and examine your resistance...
- All written work is expected to meet the STM writing guidelines.

Grades:

- Course Requirements for a “B” grade
