I. COURSE DESCRIPTION AND OBJECTIVES

Besides containing some of the Bible's most beautiful poetry, the Book of Isaiah is an important witness to periods of tremendous upheaval in Israel's history. This course will examine the book from a range of perspectives – literary, historical, and especially theological. We will consider how First, Second, and Third Isaiah make theological sense of difficult times and help later readers, including us, do the same.

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Ability to read scriptural texts critically (MDiv, MAPS, MATS).
- Ability to use biblical tools and resources as a way to inform their own exegesis for the purpose of doing their ministry (MDiv).
- Ability to be a responsive, discerning listener who can enter another's worldview [whether ancient or modern] (MDiv, MAPS, MATS).
- Awareness of their own social location/assumptions/hermeneutics as they engage the text in their own lives, their communities, and the larger world (MDiv).

III. TEXTBOOKS

A. Required

1. An annotated Bible, such as The HarperCollins Study Bible; The New Oxford Annotated Bible (which I will use in class); The Catholic Study Bible (2d ed.); The New Interpreter's Study Bible; The Jewish Study Bible; The Lutheran Study Bible.
  - Avoid: The King James Version; The Message; The Living Bible; The Way.
2. Jacob Stromberg, An Introduction to the Study of Isaiah (T & T Clark, 2011). Available in the SU Bookstore.
3. Walter Brueggemann, Isaiah (2 vols.; Westminster Bible Companion; Westminster John Knox, 1998). Available in the SU Bookstore.

B. Recommended

1. Christopher Seitz, Isaiah 1-39 (Interpretation; John Knox Press, 1985).
2. Richard Clifford, Fair Spoken and Persuading: An Interpretation of Second Isaiah (Academic Renewal Press, 2002).
3. Joseph Blenkinsopp, Isaiah (3 vols.; AB 19; Doubleday, 2000-2003)
4. Joseph Blenkinsopp, A History of Prophecy in Israel (rev. and enl.; Westminster John Knox, 1996).
5. Donald Gowan, Theology of the Prophetic Books: The Death and Resurrection of Israel (Westminster John Knox, 1998).

V. REQUIREMENTS

- A. Completion of reading assignments. They should be completed prior to the class on which they are assigned.
- B. Attendance and participation in class. I expect you to arrive on time to each class. Since absence and tardiness, even when they are “excused,” diminish your participation in class, they will likewise diminish your participation grade. Moreover, because your classmates and I deserve your full attention, I expect you to keep food and smart phones packed away during class time (not counting the fifteen-minute break). If you take notes on a laptop, I expect you to refrain from social networking during class time. Any of these activities will diminish your participation grade.
- C. Completion of weekly one-page papers. For each class you will be expected to turn in a one-page paper – literally, a single sheet with text only on one side; I will not read or grade writing on the back of the sheet or on a separate sheet – with two paragraphs. In the first I want you to respond to a biblical passage that I have chosen from the week’s assigned readings. In the second paragraph I want you to engage with the secondary literature. Choose something you found especially significant, insightful, challenging, or problematic, etc., and respond to it. These papers will be graded based on how thoughtfully you engage with the biblical text and the assigned reading for that class. One-page papers that are late will not be accepted but will receive a zero.
- D. Completion of a final paper. This ten-page paper will be an exegesis of a biblical text from a list that I will supply. (Students may propose to study a text not on the list. Such a proposal should be typed, double-spaced, about a page long, and it should persuade me that your proposed passage is the only biblical text that will enable you to write a successful paper. Proposals must be submitted to me by April 17. Unpersuasive proposals will not be approved.)

The term “exegesis” refers to “the process of careful, analytical study of biblical passages undertaken in order to produce useful interpretations of those passages...The goal of exegesis is to know neither less nor more than the information actually contained in the passage” (D. Stuart, “Exegesis,” in ABD II, p. 682). A handout with more information on how to approach this paper, a list of biblical passages available for study, and a rubric will be distributed separately. Additionally, it may be helpful to consult M. Gorman’s Elements of Biblical Exegesis: A Basic Guide for Students and Ministers (rev. and exp.; Peabody, Mass.: Hendrickson, 2009).

The Final Paper is due to me by 3:50 pm on Thursday, June 13, which is the end of our assigned exam period. Late papers will be docked ten points per day until it is turned in.

VI. CITATION FORMAT

Students in the Pastoral Counseling degree submit papers with citations in APA (American Psychological Association) format delineated by the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association. All other students submit papers with citations in CMS (Chicago Manual of Style) format delineated by The Chicago Manual of Style: The Essential Guide for Writers, Editors, and Publishers. The basic rules for these style formats may be found at the following websites:

- APA: <http://bcs.bedfordstmartins.com/resdoc5e/> (Diana Hacker website/social sciences)
- CMS <http://bcs.bedfordstmartins.com/resdoc5e/> (Diana Hacker website/history)
or http://www.chicagomanualofstyle.org/tools\_citationguide.html (CMS website)

At times students need assistance with the writing process itself. In addition to face-to-face assistance offered by Seattle University’s Writing Center (McGoldrick Learning Commons 2nd Floor), two websites offer online assistance with writing:

- Seattle University Writing Center: <http://www.seattleu.edu/writingcenter/> (Resources)
- Purdue Writing Center: <http://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/>

VII. SPECIAL NEEDS

If you have or think you may have a disability (including an “invisible disability” such as a learning disability, a chronic health problem, or a mental health condition) that interferes with your performance as a student in this class, you are encouraged to discuss your needs and arrange support services and/or accommodations through Disabilities Services staff in the Learning Center, Loyola 100, 206-296-5740.

VIII. ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

The School of Theology and Ministry strictly adheres to the Academic Policy concerning Academic Integrity (<https://www.seattleu.edu/registrar/policies.aspx>). The university defines plagiarism in this way: “The unacknowledged use of the work or intellectual property of other persons, published or unpublished, presented as one's own work. Examples of plagiarism include, but are not limited to, copying, paraphrasing, summarizing, or borrowing ideas, phrases, sentences, paragraphs, or an entire paper from another person's work without proper reference and/or acknowledgement...Students are responsible for educating themselves as to the proper mode of attributing credit in any course or field. A student does not need to have intended to plagiarize; the unacknowledged use of another's work is sufficient."
