Course Description

This course provides an introduction to the history of Christian Spirituality by examining different periods and perspectives within the tradition. In addition to a general overview of the major movements, concerns and personalities, selected texts and images will be studied to examine experiences of conversion and spiritual growth, mysticism and prayer, community and compassion. The course will also consider the wisdom of the tradition as a resource for contemporary issues.

Course Goals

- *That students will have a general overview of the history of Christian Spirituality with an awareness of its major movements, personalities and issues;
- *That different styles of prayer, community, and engagement with the world will be examined in various eras, cultures and religious perspectives;
- *That students will have read significant primary texts in Christian Spirituality and make use of secondary source material in exploring the historical/spiritual trend under study;
- *That students will explore how the collective wisdom of the tradition continues to offer insights today;
- *That students will explore contemporary appropriations (written, experiential and creative expressions) of some of the historical traditions being studied.

Learning Outcomes:

Ability to reflect theologically on the central themes of the Christian Tradition

Ability to discern and nurture spiritual experience in relation to self and others

Accountability

1. 60% of the class will be evaluated on active participation in class discussions and processes and reading of assigned material.
2. Written Work: 40% of the evaluation.
 - a. Journaling/scrape booking key quotes, ideas, images from the class sessions. The last five minutes of each class session will be devoted to this form of synthesis. This record can be integrated into the final integration project. You may find it helpful to trace a theme, issue, image or concern through the readings. This can be done in whatever creative style works for the participant.
 - b. A synthesis/ appropriation-either written/other form of artistic expression which reflects the student's attempts to integrate the course material into his/her own life and ministry. While the final synthesis project should demonstrate a mature and intellectually credible grasp of the material (i.e. a sense of historical context, interpretative skill, critical appreciation and appropriation etc.), the project/synthesis paper should also demonstrate the student's creative integration of the material into the particulars of his/her ministry or work. Synthesis assignments March 12 , 2014. Further information will be given in class.
