

2014-15 DEPENDENT STUDENT FAFSA VERIFICATION WORKSHEET

Your 2014-15 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) has been selected for review in a process called "Verification." Federal law says that as part of the process of awarding federal student aid, Seattle University may ask you to confirm the information you and your parents reported on your FAFSA. To verify that you provided correct information, Seattle University's Student Financial Services Office will compare your FAFSA with the information on this worksheet and with any other required documents. If there are differences, your FAFSA information may need to be corrected. If you have questions about verification, contact Student Financial Services at 206-220-8020 or email financialservices@seattleu.edu as soon as possible so that your financial aid will not be delayed.

The best way to verify FAFSA 2013 tax return information is to use the IRS Data Retrieval Tool that is part of FAFSA on the Web. If the student has not already used the tool, go to FAFSA.gov, log in to the student's 2014-15 FAFSA record, select "Make FAFSA Corrections," and navigate to the Financial Information section of the form. From there, follow the instructions to determine if the student is eligible to use the IRS Data Retrieval Tool to transfer 2013 IRS income tax information into the student's FAFSA. It takes up to two weeks for IRS income information to be available for the IRS Data Retrieval Tool for electronic IRS tax return filers, and up to eight weeks for paper IRS tax return filers. If you need more information about when or how to use the IRS Data Retrieval Tool, contact Seattle University's Student Financial Services Office.

IF the STUDENT filed or will file a 2013 tax return, check ONE of the three boxes below:

To obtain an IRS Tax Return Transcript, go to www.IRS.gov and click on the "Order a Return or Account Transcript" link, or call 1-800-908-9946.
