

Sinegal SU Graduate and Professional Fellowship 2014-2015 Application

Background

The Sinegal SU Graduate and Professional Fellowship honors Jim Sinegal and his commitment to educational access and equity. The Sinegal Fellowship provides support for underrepresented minority Costco Scholars who have graduated from either the University of Washington or Seattle University and who are pursuing an advanced degree at Seattle University.

The Sinegal Fellowship is a 2 year award with a stipend of $5,000 for each year.

Eligibility

- Students who will be enrolled full-time in master's, doctoral or professional degree programs at Seattle University for the 2014-15 and 2015-16 academic years.
- Students who were undergraduate Costco Scholars at either the University of Washington or Seattle University.
- Students with demonstrated financial need. Determination of financial need will be based on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) or other institutional methods as evaluated by Seattle University's Student Financial Services Office.

Selection Criteria

Applicants will be evaluated on the following criteria:

- Active participation in the Costco Scholars program while an undergraduate
- Academic merit
- Financial need
- Demonstrated understanding of Seattle University's mission

Expectations

Sinegal Fellowship recipients are expected to remain in good academic standing. In addition, recipients will be expected to help SU acknowledge donors who contribute to the award by participating in stewardship activities which will include:

- Promptly completing a thank you letter (August 2014)
- Attending the annual Costco Scholarship Fund Breakfast (September 18, 2014)
- Serving as a mentor for undergraduate Costco Scholars by participating in various programs (Student Orientation, Costco & You, etc)
