COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is designed to introduce students to some of the important themes in contemporary Christian spirituality and to a variety of approaches to prayer. Students will apply these themes to reflect upon and articulate their personal spirituality. They will also be invited to explore the theological and pastoral implications of these different approaches to prayer and spirituality. Keeping a reflection journal is strongly recommended for this course as a means of gaining insight and growth into one's spiritual journey. Class sessions will include lecture, prayer experiences, reflective times, music and discussion.

OBJECTIVES

1. To become familiar with the key elements of contemporary Christian spirituality and how these themes find expression in one's personal spirituality.
2. To experience and become familiar with a variety of prayer forms that will enable one to practice those forms which express one's personal spirituality.
3. To deepen one's process of self-reflection and to be able to articulate one's relationship to the God of one's understanding.
4. To deepen one's appreciation for the sacredness of all life.
5. To reflect on and evaluate the pastoral implications of the different approaches to prayer and spirituality.

PRE-COURSE REQUIREMENTS

1. Read Radical Amazement, Contemplation in Action and The Active Life before the first weekend session. Please read the books with your “head and heart.” Take notes (not to be handed in) and keep track of questions, resistances, “ahas” and concerns that emerge for you.
2. Establish or re-affirm a 15 minute daily prayer practice at least a month before the course begins.
3. Denominational Interview and Write Up
Seek out a spiritual and/or pastoral leader in your denomination and interview them about their understanding and experience of spirituality and their spiritual practices.

Suggested questions during the interview:

What is your understanding and experience of spirituality? What are some images or metaphors that support your understanding and/or your experience of spirituality?

Who are some of the people and authors from your denomination who have significantly shaped your understanding of spirituality?

Name and describe some significant insights and characteristics of your denomination’s approach to spirituality. What do you consider its strengths and weaknesses?

Name and describe a book written by someone in your denomination that would help someone gain insights about your denomination’s approach to spirituality.

What people and resources have been important influences on your spirituality and spiritual practices outside of your denomination?

Describe your spiritual practices. How they influence your living and ministry?

What suggestions would you offer for someone who is in the process of establishing a spiritual practice in their lives.

Ask them any other questions that seem important to you in order to better understand their spirituality.

Write up the interview in a 4 - 5 page paper (typed, double spaced).

Due: first day of class

5. Please fill out the attached questionnaire and return it by e-mail or regular mail to Alexandra (Mailing Address: 1104 21st Avenue East, Seattle, WA 98112; E-mail: cosmicdancer@comcast.net) by March 20, 2009. Your responses will help me to create and focus the course content and processes.

Thank You!

7. What situations/processes/activities help you to learn best?
8. Do you feel called to lead a prayer in class?
(Focus at beginning of class or after the break, or a longer prayer experience.)

What form/type of prayer would you use? (e.g. Taize prayer, centering prayer, psalm reading, movement, guided imagery, a song, a poem, scripture, ritual, etc.) Please describe it.

- 9 Do you feel called to create a sacred space for class that would be a visual reminder of the presence of Mystery and an expression of spirituality?
10. Do you feel called to be part of a panel that explores spirituality in relation to gender (male/female) ethnicity, culture and sexual orientation?
11. Further comments/suggestions/information that would help me to respond to your learning needs....

Due Date: March 20, 2009
