Basic Class Information, Course Requirements and Texts:

Manual for Ministerial and Theological Integration, Student Course Materials (Reference: Chapter 2) contains the course description, goals / focus for Fall Quarter, course description and requirements, texts – both required and recommended and grade distribution.

The Approach

As you begin your ministerial internship this quarter, you will actively explore your call to ministry by actually doing the ministry of the church – service to the people of God. Your internship will be the context of your primary work as a person doing professional ministry.

As a pastoral minister, you no longer act simply as an individual. You are a public figure, a representative of the church or organization where you are interning. You become the visible expression of the organization's mission, vision, values, customs and beliefs.

The class will afford you the opportunity to do the tough and careful work of reflecting on your contextual experience by using the tools of Theological Reflection. Ministerial and Theological Integration is a way for you to explore: professional / personal development and identity, vocation, theological insight and assumptions, ecclesiology, culture, receive peer feedback, and take action.

MTI is a fundamental link between the academy and practical ministry. As such, MTI is key to the engaging the formation process. The formation statement found in the Formation / Field Education Student Manual Chapter 2, and contains a succinct description of the approach used in this course.

Some Few Details:

- Unless otherwise discussed, you will need to bring enough copies of your work for each member of the class including the faculty.
- The Integration / Learnings Paper 1 page – (unless otherwise discussed) will be do one week after you have presented in class. The Integration / Learnings Paper should be accompanied by the papers critiqued by peers.
- Permission to keep a classmates paper must be given by the author.
- Class presentations are the occasion to invite your colleagues to participate in your learning. You need to set the tone, identifying what you want from your peers. Be specific and concrete, manage your time, and name the central issue or question you are addressing. Do not read a paper to the class, in many cases your peers have already read your paper.
- The class will create norms or principles of our common life.

Things That Work Best:

- This class is built on the profound assumption that you are a person of worth and value, you do not need to prove yourself to the faculty, one another or even to God.
- Participation in class includes peer evaluation, attentiveness to the needs of the self as well as others, identification of your own learnings, prayer, faith sharing and written and oral presentations. Integrity is at the heart of ministry.
- Questions are almost always more important than answers. Make very visible in your MTI work the questions you are raising of yourself, your work, and your theological understandings. This also includes questions about your internship, issues of justice, culture, and political events that influence your pastoral ministry.
- A due sense of accountability for your ministerial placement, committing to growth and development toward required competencies. Here is a chance to experience yourself as accountable to God and self in a sustained fashion.
- A journal is a helpful tool for recording your experiences, readings, peer evaluations and interactions which make up your daily journey. While journaling, you will want to be attentive to the social, cultural and political elements of the culture (newspaper / TV / books), the faith tradition and your own insights, thoughts, and feelings. You will not be asked to share your journal writings unless you so choose.
- In oral presentations and written work it is most critical to name, tag, briefly describe, or give evidence of personal / professional learnings gained from theological reflection and peer evaluations.
- All written work is expected to meet the STM writing guidelines.
