- 1. Students will complete 150-clock agency hours each quarter, observing agency hours. If an agency holiday falls on a practicum day, the student and the PI will arrange for the student to make up those practicum hours.
- 2. Students will not be in practicum during the University's closure for Thanksgiving break and breaks between academic quarters. These are the only university holidays the students will not be at their agencies. This is student self-care.
- 3. Students should have their 150 hours completed by the last day of practicum and before final examinations each quarter, unless previously arranged with PI and Field Director
