Global Opportunities for Albers Students

This flyer provides a list of selected Seattle University-Sponsored, SU-Approved and Non-SU programs that are recommended for students in Albers School of Business & Economics.

Speak with an Education Abroad Advisor for details.

Seattle University offers students in the Albers School of Business & Economics a diverse array of options to study abroad in ways that are both meaningful and relevant.

Students take coursework abroad that applies towards their major, minor, core, or elective requirements while improving their intercultural competencies.

Consult with your advisor regarding your degree requirements and what option may be best for you.

AFRICA

CAPETOWN

- >> IES Abroad—University of Capetown
- >>> SU-Approved Program
- Capetown, South Africa
- No Language Prerequisites
- Extensive Curriculum in English
- Business and Economics Foundation Courses Available
- Fall or Spring Semester

The IES program at the University of Capetown provides an opportunity for students to study business and economics alongside South African students. Students are able to fully immerse in the culture of Capetown through field trips, volunteer opportunities, field research and by living with other students in students housing.

ASIA & OCEANIA

CHINA

- >> The Beijing Center
- >> SU-Sponsored Program
- Beijing, China
- No Language Prerequisites
- Extensive Curriculum in English
- Business and Economics Foundation Courses Available
- Fall or Spring Semester

Study a variety of subjects from an international perspective in Beijing, China. The Beijing Center for Chinese Studies (BCCS) has an extensive list of courses that will help students understand the complexities and challenges of China as it becomes an increasingly important player in the global economic system.

JAPAN

- >> Sophia University Exchange
- >>> SU-Sponsored Program
- Tokyo, Japan
- Must Complete JPN 235 to be Eligible
- Extensive Curriculum in English
- Business and Economics Foundation Courses Available
- Fall or Spring Semester

Sophia University is renowned for its international environment. Study alongside other international and Japanese students in courses that are taught in English. Students are required to take a Japanese language course in addition to this coursework.

KOREA

- >> Sogang University Exchange
- >>> SU-Sponsored Program
- Seoul, South Korea
- No Language Prerequisites
- Extensive Curriculum in English
- Business and Economics Foundation Courses Available
- Fall or Spring Semester

Choose from a variety of undergraduate courses, taught in English, offered through the School of Economics and the School of Business Administration at Sogang University. Additionally, students have the opportunity to intern with one of many global companies operating in Korea.

NEW ZEALAND

- >> IES Abroad– U. of Auckland or Canterbury
- >> SU-Approved Program
- Auckland, New Zealand or Christchurch, New Zealand
- No Language Prerequisites
- Business and Economics Foundation Courses Available
- Fall or Spring Semester

The IES programs in Auckland and Christchurch offer opportunities for students to directly enroll in either the University of Auckland or the University of Canterbury in Christchurch. Students can take business and economics foundation or major level courses.

EUROPE

DENMARK

- >> Danish Institute of Study Abroad
- >> SU-Sponsored Program
- Copenhagen, Denmark
- No Language Prerequisites
- Extensive Curriculum in English
- Business and Economics Major Electives Only
- Fall or Spring Semester

The DIS program provides students with an opportunity to take academically challenging courses and field studies taught in English. Business students may fulfill one business major course while Bachelor of Arts in Economics may fulfill multiple major course requirements. Check with your advisor.

FRANCE

- >> ISA-American Business School Paris
- >> Non-SU Program
- Paris, France
- French Language Requirement Prior to OR while Abroad
- Extensive Curriculum in English
- Business and Economics Foundation Courses Available
- Fall or Spring Semester

The ISA program at the American Business School Paris allows students to study business and economics from an international perspective in the bustling city of Paris. Business and Economics students may take courses that fulfill foundation level and major level course requirements.

EUROPE

ITALY

- >>> Gonzaga-in-Florence
- >>> Non-SU Program
- Florence, Italy
- Italian Language Requirement Prior to OR while Abroad
- Extensive Curriculum in English
- Business and Economics Foundation Courses Available
- Fall or Spring Semester

The Gonzaga-in-Florence program offers business and economics students a challenging and valuable opportunity to enhance their international perspective. Business and economics foundation courses as well as Economics and International Business major courses are available.

SPAIN

- >> Saint Louis University-Madrid
- >> SU-Sponsored Program
- Madrid, Spain
- No Language Prerequisites
- Extensive Curriculum in English
- Business and Economics Foundation Courses Available
- Spring Semester

Study business and economics at a Jesuit institution in Madrid, Spain. Learn about the global trading systems of the European Union through the lens of Spanish economy and culture with classes such as: International Accounting for Global Organizations, Economic Development, and Geopolitics of Multinational Firms - European Perspective.

LATIN AMERICA

PERU

- >> ISA-University of San Ignacio de Loyola
- >> Non-SU Program

- Lima, Peru
- Spanish Language Requirement Prior to OR while Abroad
- Extensive Curriculum in English
- Business and Economics Foundation Courses Available
- Fall or Spring Semester

WORLDWIDE

IDIP

- >> International Development Internship Program
- >> SU-Sponsored Program
- Worldwide
- Intern with an International NGO
- Open to Juniors and Seniors Only
- Winter Quarter

The IDIP Program is a 20 credit, three-phase academic program. After the fall preparatory seminar, students go abroad, working with organizations like Catholic Relief Services or USAID. Projects have included: small business development, micro-finance, and economic development policy and planning. Placements are available in Africa, Asia, and Latin America.

SHORT-TERM FIELD STUDY

- >> Short Term International Field Studies
- >> SU Short Term Program
- Worldwide
- Earn CORE or Major-Specific Credits
- Two to Six Weeks in Length
- Summer Quarter

These programs add an international field-study component to courses taught during the spring quarter. For example, students in the Korea/Japan field study course attend management lectures during spring quarter and travel to Korea and Japan in the summer to attend lectures and site visits with local scholars, business professionals, and major international corporations.

ALBERS COURSE EQUIVALENCIES:

>>> Many of the business and economics foundation level as well as major level courses offered at these study abroad programs have been evaluated for equivalency to Albers courses. To review the list of equivalent courses, schedule an appointment with Albers Academic Advisor, Suzanne Jayne-Jensen, by contacting the Albers Front Desk at Pigott 318 or 206.296.5700.

>> Additional courses may be evaluated if a student submits a detailed course syllabus to Suzanne Jayne-Jensen at Pigott 318.

ALBERS SCHOOL OF BUSINESS & ECONOMICS ADVISING SHEET

This advising sheet is designed to help Albers students plan a study abroad experience that fits into their Seattle University degree. The Albers School of Business & Economics believes that international education contributes in a unique way to the liberal education and personal growth of its students. Experiencing another culture provides significant opportunities for students to look more critically at themselves and the society in which they live.

BENEFITS OF EDUCATION ABROAD

Research in education abroad indicates that you can expect the following powerful benefits from participation, especially on the longer term programs:

1. ENGAGEMENT WITH SOCIAL JUSTICE

Examine social justice issues at the international level.

2. CROSS-CULTURAL COMMUNICATION AND ANALYTICAL SKILLS

Effectively communicate across cultural differences.

3. CULTURAL PERSPECTIVE

Understand a situation from the point of view of the host culture and gain an awareness of how our OWN history, culture and society shape our views.

4. ENHANCED LANGUAGE PROFIENCY

Complete one year of language study in just one quarter!!

5. A GLOBAL PERSPECTIVE

Understand yourself as a WORLD citizen and the interconnectedness of people, ideas, and problems.

6. INTELLECTUAL GROWTH

Acquire field specific skills

7. SELF-REFLECTION

Explore your relationships with humanity, nature, and spirituality in the Jesuit Catholic intellectual tradition.

8. GLOBAL READY GRADUATES

Employers actively seek applicants who can effectively navigate the intercultural workplace.

HOW DO I GET STARTED?

It is never too early to start thinking about education abroad! Here are four things you should do to get started in this process.

0

Plan Ahead

Consult with your academic advisor regarding your goals to study abroad and discuss the best timing for your degree program.

Arm Yourself with Information

Visit the Education Abroad website to learn more about the programs available: www.seattleu.edu/abroad

Learn the Process

Attend an information session, offered each week, in the Education Abroad Office.
Call (206) 296.2226 or visit
Xavier 181 to sign up.

Keep an Open Mind

You can study abroad to locations on almost every continent, in programs lasting from several weeks to as long as one year. Talk with an Education abroad advisor to learn about opportunities that might be right for you!

For information on program types, transferring credits, and financial aid, please visit the Education Abroad website: http://www.seattleu.edu/abroad