

Online Master of Business Administration

Transform how you conduct business.

Applicants to the Online MBA program are required to submit the following materials and meet the following requirements before the designated application deadline:

During the COVID-19 pandemic, Seattle University has modified several admissions requirements. Please see below for details on what applicants to the Online MBA (or MSBA) program are required to submit before the designated application deadline.

- Completed online application form
- Bachelor's degree with a GPA of 3.0 or higher (on a 4.0 scale)*
- Optional GMAT or GRE test scores. This testing requirement is now considered optional for anyone applying to a non-law graduate program that begins in the 2021-22 academic year (summer 2021 through fall of 2022)
- Resume demonstrating at least two years of professional work experience (work experience is required)
- Unofficial transcripts from all undergraduate and post-baccalaureate work. Send unofficial transcripts to Seattle University at grad-admissions@seattleu.edu.

Once enrolled, official transcripts must be submitted before the student's second quarter

Official transcripts should be sent to:

Office of Graduate Admission
Seattle University
901 12th Avenue
P.O. Box 222000
Seattle, WA 98122-1090

International transcripts will be evaluated in-house due to COVID-19

- No application fee*
- Optional personal statement
Personal statements are not required, but may be included, especially if there is information an applicant feels is important for the admissions committee to take into consideration when making their decision
- Official English language proficiency test scores, if required. TOEFL, IELTS and PTE are accepted

*Probationary admission contingent upon completion of the program's first 12 credits with a minimum GPA of 3.0 may be offered to students who do not meet these initial criteria.

 The application fee has been waived through the fall 2022 term

Applicants for whom English is a non-native language must demonstrate English proficiency regardless of English language studies, academic history, residence in the United States or other English-speaking countries, and immigration status. However, graduate and post-baccalaureate applicants who received a baccalaureate degree or higher from Seattle University or a recognized college or university in the United States, Canada, Great Britain, Ireland, New Zealand, or Australia, and who remain in a country where English is the primary language for at least two years after graduation, will not be required to submit an English proficiency test score.
