

Become an ethical, strategic business leader.

The Online MBA From Seattle University

The Online MBA program from the Albers School of Business and Economics trains today's business professionals to identify, understand, and solve leadership challenges at any professional level. It is designed to grow your ability to make and justify difficult decisions, to strengthen your approach to forming key relationships, and to sharpen your ethical sensibility.

Immerse yourself in an Online MBA program that can transform how you conduct business by demonstrating the power of fair process and holistic operations. Because successful business is about more than profit: It's about people.

During the COVID-19 pandemic, Seattle University has modified several admissions requirements. Please see below for details on what applicants to the Online MBA (or MSBA) program are required to submit before the designated application deadline.

Program Benefits

- Earn a respected, AACSB-accredited MBA online
- Enjoy Albers' proven track record of graduate employment with such notable companies as Amazon, Microsoft, and Boeing
- Develop values-centric, ethically driven business practices in a curriculum built to promote empathy, mutual understanding, and cross-functional collaboration
- Study, discuss, network, and track your grades and progress through our intuitive online learning management system
- Choose to take a two-week study abroad course in place of OMBA 5310, and learn more about international business topics alongside Seattle U on-campus students

Online Program Structure

- 19 courses
- 54 credits
- 1 required retreat
- 10 weeks per course
- Can be completed in as few as 2.5 years
- 4 annual start dates: fall, winter, spring, and summer

*Probationary admission contingent upon completion of the program's first 12 credits with a minimum GPA of 3.0 may be offered to students who do not meet these initial criteria.

** The application fee has been waived through the fall 2022 term.

***Applicants for whom English is a non-native language must demonstrate English proficiency regardless of English language studies, academic history, residence in the United States or other English-speaking countries, and immigration status. However, graduate and post-baccalaureate applicants who received a baccalaureate degree or higher from Seattle University or a recognized college or university in the United States, Canada, Great Britain, Ireland, New Zealand, or Australia, and who remain in a country where English is the primary language for at least two years after graduation, will not be required to submit an English proficiency test score.
