

School of Theology and Ministry

Joint Degree in Law and Transformational Leadership

Application Instructions and Procedures

Students must be admitted separately to both the School of Law and the School of Theology and Leadership. For the School of Law admissions requirements, please refer to the School of Law application process page.

Participants in the joint degree program may spend their first year in either the School of Theology and Ministry or the School of Law. Once students have completed their first year in law school, joint degree participants may take courses in both the School of Theology and Ministry and the School of Law. In any case, students will be expected to meet the respective school's admissions deadlines for the coming year.

All application materials must be received by the application deadline to receive full consideration. For application deadlines and entry terms, refer to the priority deadlines. International applicants and those with international transcripts should consult the International Requirements Page, for deadlines and other requirements, as they may differ.
