All application materials must be received by the application deadline to receive full consideration. For application deadlines and entry terms, refer to the priority deadlines. International applicants and those with international transcripts should consult the International Requirements Page, for deadlines and other requirements, as they may differ.

- Complete graduate application form and submit the $55 non-refundable application fee. The fee is waived for Seattle University alumni and employees.
- Evidence of the minimum of an earned four-year baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited institution or U.S. equivalent. As evidence submit a degree-posted transcript from the last 90 quarter/60 semester graded credits of your bachelor's degree, including any transfer institution credit earned during this time period. Transcripts from any post-baccalaureate institution will also be required.
- Cumulative GPA of at least 3.00 in the last 90 quarter or 60 semester credits as well as any post-baccalaureate coursework.
- Official scores from a Graduate Management Admissions Test (GMAT) or Graduate Record Exam (GRE) taken within the last five years sent directly from the testing agency. This requirement has been made optional for the 2020-21 academic year in response to the COVID-19 pandemic.
- Résumé reflecting all work, volunteer and internship experience.
- Graduate and post baccalaureate applicants who received a baccalaureate degree or higher from Seattle University or a recognized college or university in the United States, Canada, Great Britain, Ireland, New Zealand, Australia, Bahamas, Jamaica, Kenya, Singapore, and Trinidad and Tobago will not be required to submit English proficiency test scores. Students earning a degree in a country other than those listed above may provide official documentation from the degree-granting institution verifying that all instruction was in English. A minimum of three years of enrollment at the university is required. English proficiency may be met with an official TOEFL score of 86 (IBT), or the IELTS exam with a minimum score of 6.0; PTE score of 63; or Duolingo score of 110.
- A personal statement or letter of intent is optional, but encouraged.
- A 300 word essay (uploaded to online application) on either one of these topics:
 - the job you would like to have after graduating; or
 - a problem you would like to solve, or have already solved using analytical skills.

Seattle University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity, political ideology, or status as a Vietnam-era or special disabled veteran in the administration of any of its education policies, admission policies, scholarship and loan programs, athletics, and other school-administered policies and programs, or in its employment related policies and practices. All University policies, practices and procedures are administered in a manner consistent with Seattle University's Catholic and Jesuit identity and character.
