Doctor of Nursing Practice Advanced Practice Immersion

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS AND PROCEDURES

All application materials must be received by the application deadline to receive full consideration. For application deadlines and entry terms, refer to the priority deadlines. International applicants and those with international transcripts should consult the International Requirements Page, for deadlines and other requirements, as they may differ.

- Complete graduate application form and submit the $55 non-refundable application fee. Fee waived for Seattle University alumni and employees.
- Evidence of minimum of earned four-year baccalaureate degree from regionally accredited institution or U.S. equivalent. Submit official, degree-posted transcript from last 90 quarter/60 semester graded credits of your bachelor's degree, including any transfer institution credit earned during this time period. Official transcripts for all post-baccalaureate coursework or satisfying pre-requisite coursework also required. Cumulative GPA of at least 3.00 in last 90 quarter/60 semester credits and any post-baccalaureate coursework required.
- Applicants for whom English is a non-native language must demonstrate English proficiency regardless of English language studies, residence in the United States or an English-speaking country, or immigration status. Graduate applicants with a baccalaureate or higher degrees from recognized colleges in the U.S., Canada, Great Britain, Ireland, New Zealand or Australia and who have continued to reside in countries where English is the primary language for at least two years prior to applying to Seattle University will have this requirement waived. English proficiency may be met with an official TOEFL score of 92 (IBT), or 580 (PBT); the IELTS exam with a minimum score of 7.0; PTE score of 62.
- Two letters of recommendation that can speak to the applicant's potential for success in a doctoral-level advanced nursing program.
- Professional résumé. Two years of work experience is preferred.
- Letter of intent describing professional and personal goals, including reasons for choosing DNP and particular specialty, as well as fit with mission and values.
- Prerequisites Form indicating plan for required courses. Applicants with 4 or more completed prerequisites with a grade of 'B' or better at the time of application are more competitive. Please note time-frame requirements for prerequisites. Official transcripts required for all pre-requisite coursework.
- Select applicants to be invited for an interview.
