Albers School of Business and Economics
Joint Degree in Law and Business Administration

Students must be admitted separately to both the School of Law and the Albers School of Business and Economics. For the School of Law admissions requirements, please refer to the School of Law application process page. Students may be admitted to both schools before starting in the joint program; alternatively, students may seek admissions to the other school during their first year of law or graduate business school. In any case, students will be expected to meet the respective school’s admissions deadlines for the coming year.

Application Instructions and Procedures
All application materials must be received by the application deadline to receive full consideration. For application deadlines and entry terms, refer to the priority deadlines. International applicants and those with international transcripts should consult the International Requirements Page, for deadlines and other requirements, as they may differ.

• Complete graduate application form and submit the $55 non-refundable application fee. The fee is waived through Fall 2022.
• Evidence of minimum of earned four-year baccalaureate degree from regionally accredited institution or U.S. equivalent. Submit official or unofficial copies of transcripts, degree certificates, and exam score reports for every school attended in the last 60 semester/90 quarter credits as well as any post-baccalaureate credits. You may upload the unofficial transcript(s) for your institution(s) within the Academic History tab of the application. You may also upload the transcript(s) following the submission of your application via your Status Page. Upon an offer of admission, you will be required to submit official copies of provisional documents within your first quarter of enrollment.
• Cumulative GPA of at least 3.00 in the last 90 quarter or 60 semester credits as well as any post-baccalaureate coursework.
• Completion of the following prerequisite courses with a B- or better before starting the Analytical Core: Financial Accounting, Statistics, and Professional Writing. Business Calculus is to be completed in the first year.
• Official scores from a Graduate Management Admissions Test (GMAT) or Graduate Record Exam (GRE) taken within the last five years sent directly from the testing agency. This requirement has been made optional for the 2020-21 academic year in response to the COVID-19 pandemic.
• Résumé reflecting minimum of two years of full-time continuous work experience. *The work experience requirement will be waived for joint degree students who have completed the first year of law at Seattle University.
• A personal statement or letter of intent is optional, but encouraged.
• Graduate and and post baccalaureate applicants who received a baccalaureate degree or higher from Seattle University or a recognized college or university in the United States, Canada, Great Britain, Ireland, New Zealand, Australia, Bahamas, Jamaica, Kenya, Singapore, Belize, Nigeria, and Trinidad and Tobago will not be required to submit English proficiency test scores. Students earning a degree in a country other than those listed above may provide official documentation from the degree-granting institution verifying that all instruction was in English. A minimum of three years of enrollment at the university is required. English proficiency may be met with an official TOEFL score of 86 (IBT), or the IELTS exam with a minimum score of 6.5; PTE score of 63; or Duolingo score of 110.

Seattle University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity, political ideology or status as a Vietnam-era or special disabled veteran in the administration of any of its education policies, admission policies, scholarship and loan programs, athletics, and other school-administered policies and programs, or in its employment related policies and practices.

All University policies, practices and procedures are administered in a manner consistent with Seattle University’s Catholic and Jesuit identity and character. Inquiries relating to these policies may be referred to the University’s Chief EEO Officer/Title IX Coordinator.

Consistent with the requirements of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 and its implementing regulations, Seattle University has designated individuals responsible for coordinating the University's Title IX compliance.
