

College of Arts & Sciences

Joint Degree in Law and Public Administration

Application Instructions and Procedures

Applicants must be admitted separately to both the School of Law and the Institute for Public Service in the College of Arts and Sciences. For the School of Law admissions requirements, please refer to the School of Law application process page. Applicants may be admitted to both schools before starting in the joint program; alternatively, students may seek admission to the other school during their first year of law or public administration. In any case, students will be expected to meet the respective school's admissions deadlines for the coming year.

All application materials must be received by the application deadline to receive full consideration. For application deadlines and entry terms, refer to the priority deadlines. International applicants and those with international transcripts should consult the International Requirements Page, for deadlines and other requirements, as they may differ.

- Complete graduate application form and submit the $55 non-refundable application fee. The fee is waived for Seattle University alumni and employees.
- Evidence of minimum of earned four-year baccalaureate degree from regionally accredited institution or U.S. equivalent. As evidenced submit an official, degree-posted transcript from last 90 quarter/60 semester graded credits of your bachelor's degree, including any transfer credit earned during this time, and any post-baccalaureate course work.
- Minimum 3.00 GPA in last 90 quarter/60 semester credits required. In special cases, probationary admission possible with less than 3.00 GPA. Applicants earning a bachelor's degree from non-graded institutions must submit official scores from a Graduate Record Exam (GRE) in lieu of GPA.
