

College of Education

Master in Education in Educating Non-native English Speakers: Leadership, Research, and Professional Practice

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS AND PROCEDURES

All application materials must be received by the application deadline to receive full consideration. For application deadlines and entry terms, refer to the priority deadlines. International applicants and those with international transcripts should consult the International Requirements Page, for deadlines and other requirements, as they may differ.

- Complete graduate application form and submit the $55 non-refundable application fee. The fee is waived for Seattle University alumni and employees.
- Evidence of the minimum of an earned four-year baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited institution or U.S. equivalent. As evidenced submit an official, degree-posted transcript from the last 90 quarter/60 semester graded credits of your bachelor's degree, including any transfer institution credit earned during this time period as well as any post-baccalaureate coursework.
- Minimum GPA of 3.0. Applicants with less than a 3.00 GPA may apply, but are required to submit official scores from the GRE or the MAT taken within the last five years.
- Professional résumé
- Copy of Valid Washington State Teacher certification
- Two recommendations from recent employers/supervisors/professors using the College of Education forms provided through the application.
- Personal statement describing your purpose for applying to the Educating Non-native English Speakers master's degree by addressing the following: 1) how this degree will assist your work as a teacher; 2) why you chose to apply to ENES for advanced study and; 3) how you expect your present and future work as an educator will be impacted by both the ENES degree and the mission of Seattle University.
- College of Education Self-Evaluation Form
- Applicants for whom English is a non-native language must demonstrate English proficiency regardless of English language studies, residence in the United States or an English-speaking country, or immigration status. Graduate applicants with a baccalaureate or higher degrees from recognized colleges in the U.S., Canada, Great Britain, Ireland, New Zealand or Australia and who have continued to reside in countries where English is the primary language for at least two years prior to applying to Seattle University will have this requirement waived. English proficiency may be met with an official TOEFL score of 92 (IBT), or 580 (PBT); the IELTS exam with a minimum score of 7.0; PTE score of 62.

Send documents directly to Graduate Admissions:

Seattle University
Office of Graduate Admissions
901 12th Avenue
PO Box 222000
Seattle, WA 98122-1090
grad-admissions@seattleu.edu
Fax: (206) 296-5656
Phone: (206) 220-8010

Seattle University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, marital status, sexual orientation, gender identity, political ideology, or status as a Vietnam-era or special disabled veteran in the administration of any of its education policies, admission policies, scholarship and loan programs, athletics, and other school-administered policies and programs, or in its employment related policies and practices. All University policies, practices and procedures are administered in a manner consistent with Seattle University's Catholic and Jesuit identity and character. Inquires related to these policies may be referred to the University's Vice President for Human Resources and University Services and Equal Opportunity Officer at (206) 296-5870.