Master of Science in Mechanical Engineering

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS AND PROCEDURES

All application materials must be received by the application deadline to receive full consideration. For application deadlines and entry terms, refer to the priority deadlines. International applicants and those with international transcripts should consult the International Requirements Page, for deadlines and other requirements, as they may differ.

- Complete graduate application form and submit the $55 non-refundable application fee. The fee is waived for Seattle University alumni.
- Evidence of an earned four-year baccalaureate degree in mechanical engineering or related discipline from an ABET- accredited or regionally accredited institution. Applicants with an engineering or related degree from a non-ABET accredited institution must also provide official scores from a Graduate Record Exam (GRE) taken within the last five years. The subject test in Mechanical Engineering is optional.
- Minimum GPA of 3.00 (on a 4.00 scale) or the equivalent from the last 90 quarter/60 semester graded credits of your bachelor's degree, including any transfer institution credit earned during this time period.
- Official transcripts from the last 90 quarter/60 semester credits of the bachelor's degree and any post-baccalaureate coursework earned.
- Letter of intent discussing background, interests, and reasons for wanting to pursue a master's degree in mechanical engineering (1-2 pages).
- Professional resume summarizing academic and related work experience, if any.
- Contact information for two references, one should be prepared by a supervisor.
- Applicants for whom English is a non-native language must demonstrate English proficiency regardless of English language studies, residence in the United States or an English-speaking country, or immigration status. Graduate applicants with a baccalaureate or higher degrees from recognized colleges in the U.S., Canada, Great Britain, Ireland, New Zealand or Australia and who have continued to reside in countries where English is the primary language for at least two years prior to applying to Seattle University will have this requirement waived. English proficiency may be met with an official TOEFL score of 92 (IBT), or 580 (PBT); the IELTS exam with a minimum score of 7.0; PTE score of 62
