The Humanities Core

- The Humanities Core is a cohort style program, where you move through the Humanities courses with the other students in your cohort.
- The Humanities Core focuses on peace and justice studies, as well as community engagement.
- Humanities Core replaces the University Core
- For more information on the Humanities Core and the degrees offered within the Matteo Ricci Institute, visit <https://www.seattleu.edu/artsci/undergraduate-degrees/matteo-ricci/>

Additional Teaching Information

- The Elementary Education Specialization enables you to be certified to teach by earning a Washington State Elementary Teaching Credential.
- Students must pass the WEST-B Basic Skills exam before starting any EDLS teacher certification coursework in their Junior Year.
- Students must pass the NES Elementary Education Subtests I and II, and the edTPA for teacher certification in Washington State.
- For more information on how to become a teacher and to schedule an appointment with the Pre-Education Advisor, visit <https://www.seattleu.edu/artsci/advising/pre-education/>
