Curricular Practical Training (CPT)
For Students on F-1 Visa — During degree program

What is it?
- Off-campus work authorization for F-1 students who are currently pursuing degree programs at Seattle University
- Employment must be related to student’s field of study
- Typically issued for paid internships
- Authorized by Seattle University International Student Center

Duration of Employment
- Employment authorization is given on a quarter-by-quarter basis
- CPT may be extended or renewed with advance approval depending on the student’s academic credit situation
- Generally, students are limited to part-time (20 hours or less per week) during Fall, Winter, and Spring quarters and full-time work (40 hours per week) during Summer quarter
- Some graduate students may be eligible for full-time CPT during Fall, Winter, and Spring Quarters

Processing Time
- 1-2 weeks upon receipt of an employment offer letter

Student’s Role
- Verify eligibility for CPT
- Obtain academic department approval and enroll in academic course as determined by academic department
- Submit complete CPT application to Seattle University International Student Center at least three (3) business days prior to beginning employment

Employer’s Role
- Provide student with an offer letter of employment including job title, dates of employment (start and end dates), number of hours per week, location of employment, and detailed description of responsibilities
- Request a copy of the CPT I-20 from the student for I-9 purposes
- There is no cost to the employer and the CPT application is entirely the responsibility of the student

Proof of Authorization
- A new CPT I-20 listing the authorized employer, address, dates of authorization, and whether part-time or full-time employment has been granted
- Work cannot begin until student obtains authorization
