

VIRTUAL RESOURCES FOR RAMADAN, 2020

Muslim Association of Puget Sound Shares Ramadan Programs and Services

Programs include a daily livestream of Taraweeh (night prayers) and Tafseer (Quranic exegesis) by national scholars and our local imams, as well as a virtual Quran competition.

Muslim American Leadership Alliance's COVID Response and Resources

Use this space to connect virtually with your community and offer any assistance that you can. You can also share your stories with them: How are you coping? What are you doing in your own community? Where are you finding comfort during these difficult times? Be sure to stay connected with the MALA community by attending one of their up-coming Webinars!

The Islamic Center of Southern California Helps You Stay Connected

From Virtual Jummah and Quranic recitation, to their featured Khutbas and lectures, the ICSC has a host of programs to keep you connected in community.

Check out The Islamic Center at NYU for their Virtual Weekly Halaqas

Scroll down on their webpage to explore some of their other virtual events. You can also check out virtual classes and prior Jummah Khutbah's here.

Global Islamic Studies Center at the University of Michigan Provides Your One-Stop-Shop for all Things Ramadan

Their website contains information, activities, and programming, including "Zoom into Ramadan" gatherings every Monday and Thursday from 7-7:30pm during the month of Ramadan. Be sure to scroll down and sign up for their listserv.