Defining race talk
Race Talk is...

- “...the explicit insertion into everyday life of racial signs and symbols that have no meaning other than pressing African Americans to the lowest level of the racial hierarchy” (Morrison, 1993, p. 57).
- More broadly includes any demeaning speech based on race or ethnicity (Myers & Williamson, 2001)

Purposes of Race Talk

- Boundary marking – talk that defines a pecking order
- Boundary policing – keeping others in their place
- Boundary maintenance – talk that keeps ingroup members in their place
Dominant narratives about race (family, media, society) coupled with racialized structural arrangements and differential outcomes by race all prime us to believe that people of color are inferior to white people, create and maintain harmful associations, and lead us to make harmful assumptions, consciously and unconsciously, about people of color.

Race is created to justify enlisting people from Africa (economic engine of country).

Policies and practices that consolidate and protect power bestow unearned economic, social, cultural, and political advantage to people called “white,” and unearned disadvantage to people of color.

National narrative (ideology, belief system) about people of color being “less than” human (and less than white) justifies mistreatment and inequality (white supremacy).

Inequitable outcomes and experiences resulting from policy decisions in health, housing, employment, education, and life expectancy - reinforces white supremacist beliefs and ideology; dominant narrative uses disparate outcomes as evidence of white superiority, promotes whiteness as “normal” and desirable and justifies inequality.

Implicit Bias

For Example:
- Voting Rights
- FHA Loans
- Residential segregation
- Access to education, green space, resources, safety, healthcare, etc.
- Jobs, hiring and advancement

Myth of Meritocracy

• Have you ever said:
  • God helps those who help themselves.
  • Everyone can make it if the work hard enough.
  • Fulfill your personal destiny.
  • I worked for everything I have. No one ever gave me anything.

Resistance and Race talk in Hiring

• Gaudiano & Hunt, 2019
  • We can’t get enough qualified applicants
  • We hire for quality, not for color
  • It would be unfair to the more qualified candidates
  • We already know a very good candidate in our network
  • The effort to increase diversity is unduly burdensome
  • Our company does not have a diversity problem
Categories of diversity practices and intended consequences

Overall desired consequence = more representation, greater inclusion, decreased career gaps between POC and whites

Unintended but predictable consequences

Leslie, 2018

Diversity initiatives send signal such as:

Resource practices – POC will succeed and POC need help

Nondiscrimination practices – Morality is valued

Accountability - Diversity goal progress is valued
What does this have to do with race talk?

Implementation of initiatives often involves race talk.

How does your organization, leaders frame diversity initiatives? Do you use race talk in framing?

How do employees interpret initiatives? Is race talk used in sharing interpretations?
Intrapersonal strivings
Where are you in your racial identity development?

- Early: uncritical examination of beliefs about race, absorption of the values of the dominant white culture, colorblind
- Awakening: exploring history, questioning racist ideologies, confronting prior conceptions of the world
- Awareness and action: Know that racist policies create racial inequity (no inherent difference), understanding how to use privilege, fighting racist ideas
Values Discussions and Facades of Conformity

- Hewlin, 2003, 2009
- Inauthentic behavior, suppression of divergent values, pretense of embracing organizational values
- More prevalent in environments that are intolerant to diverse perspectives and values
- More prevalent when leaders have a high degree of integrity.
Mindset

Dweck, 2011

Are your core qualities built in and fixed by nature or can your qualities be developed through nurture and your persistent efforts?

Fixed = avoidance of challenges for fear of showing ourselves to be unintelligent or something else (like racist)

Growth = seeking challenging learning opportunities and showing resilience in the face of setbacks

Dismantle race talk

• Race talk vs. anti-racist talk

• Race Talk: “‘...the explicit insertion into everyday life of racial signs and symbols that have no meaning other than pressing African Americans to the lowest level of the racial hierarchy’ (Morrison, 1993, p. 57).

• Anti-racist talk: ...the explicit insertion into everyday life of antiracist signs and symbols that have no meaning other than supporting anti-racist policies by expressing anti-racist ideas (Ferraro, 2020)
Facilitating or engaging in anti-racist talk

• Creary, 2020; RACE framework

• R – Reduce anxiety by talking about race anyway
  • Use conversation norms and strategies

• A – Accept that anything related to race is either going to be visible or invisible
  • Ask what is gained or lost when race is invisible, hypervisible.

• C – call on internal and external allies for help
  • You need a network to help you develop

• E – Expect that you will need to provide some “answers,” practical tools, and skill-based frameworks
