

Anita Garcia Morales
moralesanita@seattleu.edu

Organization and Communication:

- Designing and facilitating equity and race, literacy and social studies professional development for Seattle Public Schools, 2003-2016
- Consulting independently on Equity, Race & Class locally and nationally, 2000-present
- Co-teaching Equity, Race, Class/Foundations for Seattle Teacher Residency, June 2013-present
- Social Studies Lead for Seattle Public Schools, 2004-2013
- Writing a DOE Teaching American History ($971,000) grant for SPS, 2007-2011-
Teaching American History from the Perspective of Marginalized Groups
- Serving as Executive Director of Teaching American History Grant, 2007-2011
- Overseeing University of Washington American Ethnic Studies Department/Seattle School District Partnership to bring ethnic studies classes to Seattle Public Schools' staff, 2004-2007
- Sitting on Professional Education Advisory Board for University of Washington College of Education, 2004- 2013; Chair and Co-Chair 2009-2011
- Participating as member of Washington State Social Studies Cadre for OSPI, 2009-2013
- Mentoring new teachers, developing and delivering professional development on diversity, literacy, and racism, 1999-2013
- Co-writing and rolling out Seattle School District Professional Practice Standards, 2000-2007

Education, Training, Certification

- BA-University of Washington, June 1971
- Teaching Certificate-University of Washington, June 1975
- 135+ credit hours from various universities, 1981-present
- REACH Trainer of Trainers, 1996-1998
- Building Leadership Training, 2002
- Courage & Renewal Circle of Trust Facilitator, 2002-present
- Courageous Conversations, Beyond Diversity, 2002-2004, 2013
Undoing Institutional Racism (UIR), 2007
- Guided Language Acquisition Design (G.L.A.D.), 2009-2011
- Certified Positive Discipline Associate for Parent/Guardians and Educators, 2004-present
- Race: The Power of an Illusion Trainer of Trainers, 2013
- Certified Class Action Lead Trainer, 2003-present

Work Experience

- 2017 Racing 2 Excellence & Social Justice Consultant
- 2013-2017 Cultures Connecting Independent Contractor

- 1981-2016 Seattle Public Schools
 - January 2014-June 2016, Equity & Race Relations Specialist
 - September 2003-June 2013, Social Studies, Literacy and Race & Equity Instructional Coach
 - July 2007-June 2011, Project Director Teaching American History DOE Grant for SPS
 - July 2003-June 2007, SPS School Coach, Equity Team, American Ethnic Studies Facilitator
 - September 1981-June 2003, Classroom Teacher
- February 2005 - present Class Action Lead Trainer
- October 2006-Present, Certified Positive Discipline Associate - Educator and Parent/Guardian
- May 2003-Present, Washington Courage & Renewal Facilitator
- Summers 2001-2005, Y. U. LEARN Summer School Lead Teacher (YMCA)
- June 2013-present Seattle Teacher Residency Instructor