

Update: Strategic Planning Committee

College of Arts & Sciences

September 17, 2018

■ WHY NOW?

- Timeliness for CAS
- Clarity and shared focus
- Opportunity to inform University process

■ GOALS FOR TODAY

- Update on the CAS process
- Information on University's plans
- Get your input to share with University

■ GUIDING PRINCIPLES

Committee that is representative and includes faculty (tenure and non-tenure), staff and students.

Planning process that:

- honors our mission and values
- builds on our shared governance principles
- aligns with our work on intersectionality

NOMINATIONS from:

- Executive Committee
- Faculty Staff Senate
- Graduate student committee
- Leadership Committee on Intersectionality and Justice
- Undergraduate student committee

COMMITTEE MEMBERS

Alec Downing

Undergraduate Student

Ali Mian

Assistant Professor, Theology and Religious Studies

Hannah Tracy

Senior Instructor, English

Joseph DeFilippis

Assistant Professor, Anthropology, Sociology and Social Work

Kevin Ward

Associate Professor, Institute of Public Service

Lindsay Ohab

Program Coordinator, Institute of Public Service

Lucas Sharma, SJ

Lecturer, ASSW, Institute for Catholic Thought and Culture

Maureen Emerson Feit, Co-Chair

Director & Senior Instructor, Nonprofit Leadership

María Bullón-Fernández, Co-Chair

Professor, English

Samantha Drennon

Graduate Student

Executive Coordinator, Office of Diversity and Inclusion

Sonia Barrios Tinoco

Associate Professor & Chair, Modern Languages and Culture

Tasmia Moosani

Academic Advisor, Arts & Sciences Advising Center

Sonora Jha, Dean's Liaison

Professor, Communication

Associate Dean for Academic Community, College of Arts & Sciences

Kate Reynolds

Administrative Support, Administrative Assistant, College of Arts & Sciences

■ CAS STRATEGIC PLANNING COMMITTEE

- Held two meetings (spring & fall)
- Compared approaches to planning
- Developed working agreements
- Identified potential consultants/facilitators
- Met with Vice-Provost and drafted adjusted CAS planning timeline

■ UNIVERSITY PROCESS (DRAFT)

GOALS

- Engage the university through broad and deep outreach and dialogue. Strengthen the university community by exemplifying and advancing shared governance and inclusive excellence.
- Produce a plan that fulfills the mission, focuses on the experiences and successes of all of our students, and expresses and advances our Jesuit identity and education purposes

TIMELINE

FALL 2018: Constitute steering committee

WINTER/SPRING 2018-19: Clarify vision and draft goals

LATE SPRING 2019: Finalize goals

FALL 2019: Approve new plan

CAS PROCESS: PROPOSED

AY 2018-19

Focus our efforts on gathering input from you and play a proactive role in informing the university's process and plan

SPRING 2019-FALL 2020

Lead the design of our College's plan in light of the results emerging from university's process

WINTER 2020

Finalize plan

■ QUESTIONS FOR DISCUSSION

TOPIC 1

- In your opinion, what would a successful university strategic planning process include?

TOPIC 2

- What are our College's unique contributions to the world? to our immediate community? to Seattle University?
- What are Seattle University's unique contributions to the world? to our immediate community?

THANK YOU

María Bullón-Fernández

bullon@seattleu.edu

Maureen Emerson Feit

feitm@seattleu.edu