

CMME 4000 Practical Experience

CMME 4000 provides an opportunity to gain professional experience for your resume, as well as hone your career skills, by working as a PR consultant for an actual non-profit client. You will be a part of a team of dedicated students with the tools and advice you need to succeed.

CMME 4000 can fulfill your CMME Internship/Practical Experience Requirement, as well as your STCM Special Topics Course or General CMME Elective requirement. All students are welcome.

M/W/F 12:30 pm – 1:55 pm. Class is 100% remote, no in-person participation required

CMME 4000 WQ 21 Client Roster

- KiloWatts for Humanity: a volunteer-based organization that strives to eliminate energy poverty and provide electricity access to individuals in Zambia, Africa, and other developing countries.
- Eli's Park: Eli's Park project team is working with Seattle Parks to create a natural, totally accessible and welcoming park where every child and family is accepted and celebrated.
- Full Life Care: an adult health service dedicated to assuring adults with serious illnesses or disabilities can be supported in the community rather than living in isolation or needing to resort to institutional care.
- Seattle University Communication Department: you will manage the Communication Department's brand, social media and events to strengthen its relationship with the student body and alumni.
