

Continuing Education Event Social Media and Crime

Join us for our annual all-day continuing education event focusing on social media and crime. This event will examine the role of social media in crime with focus on performance crime, copycat crime, the use of social media by domestic and international terrorists, and other topics.

Featuring Dr. Mary Ellen O'Toole & Dr. Ray Surette

Mary Ellen O'Toole, Ph.D., editor of the journal, Violence and Gender, has spent her career studying the criminal mind. One of the most senior profilers for the FBI until her retirement in 2009, Dr. O'Toole has helped capture, interview and understand some of the world's most infamous people including: Gary Ridgway, the Green River Killer; Ted Kaczynski, the Unabomber; The Zodiac serial murder case; The bombing during the 2002 Olympics in Salt Lake City, UT. Dr. O'Toole has published numerous articles and book chapters on psychopathy, criminal profiling, and social media and crime, and is author of the widely cited report The School Shooter: A Threat Assessment Perspective.

Ray Surette, Ph.D. is a Professor of Criminal Justice at the University of Central Florida. He's published several books and articles including the leading textbook, Media, Crime, and Justice. He is author of the seminal article in Crime & Delinquency, Self-Reported Copycat Crime among a Population of Serious and Violent Offenders and his recent work focuses on performance crime and justice. He is co-principal investigator on a NIJ grant entitled "Studying the Impact of Video Analytics for Pre, Live and Post Event Analysis on Outcomes of Criminal Justice."

Date:

Friday, June 1, 2018

Time:

8:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.

Location:

Student Center

Room 130

Open to All

Cost of Admission:

$150 – Professionals and Public

$100 – Alumni, Faculty and Staff

$50 - Current Students

Cost includes continuing education event, breakfast and lunch, and continuing education certificate of completion

All Proceeds from this event go to the Seattle University Department of Criminal Justice's Center for the Study of Crime and Justice to fund student research

SEATTLEU

DEPARTMENT OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE