

Addressing Seattle's Urban Disorder with Collective Efficacy Principles

May 6, 2016, 8:30-4:30pm - Casey Commons, 5th Floor Casey Building

PROGRAM

8:30-9:00: WELCOME AND KEYNOTE

Welcome: Dr. Jacqueline Helfgott, Chair/Professor, Criminal Justice Department, Seattle University

Keynote: Seattle Councilmember Sally Bagshaw

9:00-10:30: DEFINITION OF THE PROBLEM AND CONTEXT

What is disorder? What causes disorder, who is involved and where do they come from?

- Captain Chris Fowler, Seattle Police Department (Moderator)
- Sola Plumacher, Strategic Advisor, Seattle Human Services Department
- Molly Carney – Executive Director, Evergreen Treatment Services
- Melinda Givengo, Executive Director, Youthcare
- Al O'Brien, Former SPD Sergeant and WA State Representative

10:30-10:45: BREAK

10:45-12:00: RESPONSES TO DISORDER

- Gary Johnson, Seattle Department of Planning and Development (Moderator)
- Jordan Royer, former Public Safety Advisor under Mayor Nickels and Mayor Schell
- Sgt. Dan Nelson, Seattle Police Department, CIT Coordinator
- Dave Willard, Vice President, Public Area Management, Metropolitan Improvement District

12:00– 1:00 – LUNCH (on site)

1:00 – 2:30 CONSTITUTIONAL IMPLICATIONS OF MANAGING URBAN ACTIVITIES

Protests/Civil Disobedience/Homelessness – where is the line between constitutional rights and criminal activity?

- Pete Holmes, Seattle City Attorney (Moderator)
- Sara Rankin, Seattle University Law School Professor, Director of the Homeless Rights Advocacy Project
- Robert Gomulkiewicz, University of Washington Law School Professor
- Dr. Peter Collins, Seattle University Criminal Justice Department

2:30 – 2:45: BREAK

2:45 – 4:30 SOLUTIONS

Collective community action

- Nick Licata, Former Councilmember, Seattle City Council (Moderator)
- Sharon Lee, Executive Director, Low Income Housing Institute
- Patty Noble-Desy - King County Recidivism, Reduction and Re-entry Project
- Chloe Gale, REACH Co-Director
- Michael Ramos, Executive Director, Church Council of Greater Seattle

COST*: $100 General public | $75 Alumni | $50 Students and Campus Community

Cost includes continuing education event, continental breakfast and lunch and continuing education certificate of completion. All proceeds go to the Seattle University Department of Criminal Justice's Center for the Study of Crime and Justice to fund student research.*