

Alpha Iota Sigma

Interdisciplinary Studies Honor Society

To the Alpha Iota Sigma honor society selection committee:

For the reasons given below, I recommend that _____ be received into Alpha Iota Sigma, the international Interdisciplinary Studies Honor Society, which recognizes outstanding academic achievements in the field of interdisciplinary studies. All candidates must have junior or senior standing, maintain a 3.3GPA and have completed Methods of Interdisciplinary Research. Return by email only to Dr. Sven Arvidson, AIS Honors Selection Committee, arvidson@seattleu.edu.

To what extent do you agree with these statements:

1. This candidate is able to think critically about academic disciplines.

Fully agree Mostly agree Somewhat agree Do not agree

2. This candidate is able to use disciplinary and interdisciplinary perspective-taking to approach complex problems.

Fully agree Mostly agree Somewhat agree Do not agree

3. This candidate has shown the ability to find common ground among various disciplinary insights and work towards integration.

Fully agree Mostly agree Somewhat agree Do not agree

4. This candidate has shown the ability to manage complex projects, meet deadlines, and effectively communicate results to others.

Fully agree Mostly agree Somewhat agree Do not agree

5. This candidate demonstrates metacognition with respect to education or interdisciplinary work.

Fully agree Mostly agree Somewhat agree Do not agree

6. This candidate demonstrates the values and ideals for maintaining a lifetime commitment to community engagement.

Fully agree Mostly agree Somewhat agree Do not agree

Additional Comments if desired:

Name and Title of Recommender:

Date:

SEATTLE UNIVERSITY.

Casey 430, 901 12th Avenue, Seattle, WA 98122-1090, USA

Interdisciplinary Liberal Studies

T + 1 (206) 296-5470 arvidson@seattleu.edu
<https://www.seattleu.edu/artsci/interdisciplinary-liberal-studies/>