The minor in Japanese requires 20 credits of SU courses and a Learning Program in a Japanese speaking country for the equivalent of 15 quarter credits.

MINOR REQUIREMENTS

Most students who continue to take the Japanese for a second year end up minoring in Japanese. The minor requires:

- 35 credits (7 courses from JPAN 1250 to JPAN 3150 and one 3000 level 5-credit course, which focuses on Japan; you will need approval of the program.)
- A maximum of 15 credits can be accepted from outside institution.
- JPAN 3150 must be taken at Seattle University.
- A cumulative GPA of 2.0 (C) is required for the minor.

Now Accepting Applications!
Study Abroad in Tokyo,

Sophia University is one of the most prestigious universities in Japan. Seattle University has an exchange program with Sophia University.

Students who study Japanese at SU will be given a priority to study abroad at Sophia. All of the 3000 Japanese related course credits earned at Sophia fulfill the minor requirement, since Sophia will be treated as the “home” institution.

THE PROGRAM

The Japanese Program provides students with the foundation to understand the language as well as its society & people. It consists of two years’ worth of language courses and one quarter of the culture program. The goal of the program is to educate students to become a whole person who lives in the 21st century.

Cultural Activities Beyond the Classroom

Many students studying Japanese participate in Japan related events such as Harumatsuri (spring festival) organized by JSA (Japanese Students Association), Hidaka Taiko (Japanese drum) performances, and Cosplay & Kimono events.

The JET Program: Work in Japan!

The Japan Exchange and Teaching Program is a Japanese government initiative that brings university graduates who are native speakers of English to Japan. It is competitive, and the knowledge of Japanese is a big plus to be accepted by the JET. Many SU graduates who studied Japanese have worked in Japan through the JET.
