

Are you interested in becoming an educator of social work practice?

Be a Practicum Instructor

Practicum Instructors help prepare social work students for professional practice by educating and evaluating students' practice skills in the field.

Qualifications to become a Practicum Instructor are:
Earned Master's degree in social work from a CSWE-accredited social work program

A minimum of two years of post-graduate social work practice experience

To learn more contact:
Estella C. Williamson, DSW
Social Work Field Education Director
ewilliamson@seattleu.edu
(206) 296-2537