The Student Executive Council (SEC) is the student advisory board to the Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences. Each representative serves the interests of their department/program and the student body at large. The SEC serves to provide students a voice in the decision-making process of the College of Arts and Sciences.

SEC meets every three weeks on Thursdays during the noon hour.

SEC Members

Department/Program Representatives

- voice concerns of students in department/program
- organize students within the department/program
- ensure student participation in department/program decision-making, i.e. hiring of new professors and admissions recruitment events

Representatives are required to meet at least once a quarter with the Department Chair/Program Director of the major they are representing

At Large Representatives

- represent entirety of student body
- allow for a wider range of SEC membership

Students can apply for these positions regardless of declared major or minor

Together

- serve on SEC committees throughout the school year and provide feedback on topics such as advising, course evaluations and other matters
- coordinate annual events such as the Advisor, Teacher, and Staff of the Year selections, the Scholastic Competition, and the Conversation with the Dean, among other initiatives and events that are determined on an annual basis
