

Seattle University Counseling Program Vital Statistics AY 2012-2013

Number of program graduates from the past year

32 students graduated in 2013

Completion rate

The completion rate for the Class of 2013 was 87% among the total number of students admitted in Spring 2010. There was a 13% attrition rate during a three year period. Reasons cited were financial issues, moving out of town, change in professional goals.

Exit Exam & Licensure or certification examination pass rate

Counselor Preparation Comprehensive Examination (CPCE) AY 2012-2013

Between Fall and Spring, 36 students registered for the CPCE Exam

Mean Score was 99

National Mean was 83.87

National Counselor Exam (NCE) AY 2012-2013

Note the NCE exam is one step in the licensure process for successful application for Washington State Mental Health Counselor after completing 3,000 hours of supervised post masters experience. Students are invited, but not required to take the NCE exam.

31 students registered and completed the NCE in the Spring of 2013

30 students passed the exam

SU Counseling Program average score was 119.81. There are 160 items on the test but the maximum score for this administration nationally was 152.

Job Placement Rate

Among alumni surveyed for job placement status as of Fall 2013, 50% responded to the survey. Of those responding, 72 % are employed full time, 18% are employed part-time and 10% are unemployed. Among those unemployed reasons cited included child care, moving out of state and continued job search. Among School Counseling graduates, two are completing a year long externship in Spain.