

The Nancy and Lorraine Scholarship in Nursing: Global Education 2020

The Nancy and Lorraine Scholarship in Nursing: Global Education provides support of $2500.00 for Seattle University students who are planning a global education experience outside the US. The funds are intended to contribute a portion of the costs; students are expected to pay the remainder from other sources (such as personal funds, other scholarships, or donations raised).

Students interested in the undergraduate College of Nursing study abroad immersion program for Belize can apply for this scholarship directly to Global Nursing Committee. Please submit applications by February 1, 2020.

Criteria: Education abroad opportunity as described above and approved by the College of Nursing, financial need, and a GPA of 3.0 or higher.

Purpose: To support an undergraduate student to engage in an education abroad experience. Funding is to cover expenditures related to global travel.

About the Award: The mothers of Maureen and Joe Brotherton, Nancy Pleas and Lorraine Brotherton, respectively, were both registered nurses and “great moms.” Lorraine passed away in 1975 and Nancy passed away in 2016. While neither Nancy nor Lorraine were educated at Seattle University, they were both supporters of Jesuit Education. The Nancy and Lorraine Scholarship in Nursing was established in 2015 in honor of Maureen and Joe Brotherton’s nursing moms. The addition of the Global Education Scholarship was established in 2018.

Scholarship will be granted to one undergraduate student per year. Maximum grant awarded will be $2500.

Submit application via email to Heather Depuydt, Chair of the GNC (depuydt@seattleu.edu)
