The Sogang Exchange Program seeks to develop a cross culturally competent, global perspective by providing a semester of transformative, experiential learning focused on an international perspective in the Korean context. Sogang offers 24 majors and 10 interdisciplinary degrees in its undergraduate program of 8,000 students. In addition to taking subject courses in English, students have the opportunity to study Korean Language. Sogang University was founded in 1960 by the Society of Jesus and is the only Jesuit higher educational institution in Korea. A little over 1,350 foreign students study year round at Sogang University. It is located in the heart of Seoul where students will be able to explore the city’s nightlife, culture, and, of course, Korean food.
