DECLARATION OF FINANCES

Use this form and obtain the appropriate signatures. Students receiving grants or scholarships from their governments or employers must submit letters verifying such awards.

U.S. Immigration requires that Seattle University verify the financial resources of all international applicants. This form is for that purpose. The estimated costs listed below are for one academic year (three quarters).

You are required to certify that you or your sponsor have the amounts listed.

These estimated costs do not include transportation costs to and from the United States.

Student visa holders are not authorized to work in the United States except under special circumstances.

You should not plan on supporting your education through employment while being a student.

► INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THE DECLARATION OF FINANCES FORM

- Find your total yearly estimated costs.
 - Have your sponsor complete, sign, and date the student section of this form.
 - Attach a bank statement or letter in your sponsor's name which reflects his/her ability to cover one year's costs at Seattle University. For students currently living in the United States, bank statement dates must be within six months of quarter of entry. For students living outside the United States, bank statement dates must be within twelve months of the quarter of entry.
 - Photocopies and facsimiles of signatures and bank statements are acceptable.
 - Sign and date the statement of responsibility section.
 - All portions of this International Student Declaration of Finances must be completed for issuance of an I-20A (F-1 students) or DS-2019 (J-1 students).
