Staying in Touch

• Encourage your student to reach out to new friends from Orientation
• OAs have developed helpful videos to prepare for the first quarter
• OAs will continue to be available via email, text, social media, etc.
Upcoming Housing Dates

• July 19: Roommate Searching / Grouping Closes (12pm)
  – This is done on the Housing Portal

• August 6: Notification of Housing Assignment
  – Found on the Housing Portal
Roommate Matching

• If students do not find a person—No Worries!

• Housing & Residence Life will find someone compatible for them based on similarities in ...
  – Sleeping Habits
  – Study Habits
  – Cleanliness and Organization
  – Activity Levels

• We find that these areas are the most critical when living with another person
Items to Bring

• Toiletries
• Sheets, mattress pad, pillows
• Blue tape/command strips for decorations
• Fan
• Laptop and tech accessories
• Study materials and books
• Bowls, plates, utensils
• Extra storage (ex: under the bed containers)
Items Not To Bring

• Candles, incense
• Blenders, ovens, hot plates
• Weapons of any kinds
• Bed risers
• Halogen lamps or oil lamps
• A wireless router
• A fridge or microwave
• Large valuables
• Everything you own (in a box to the left)

For more specifics, check out our Guide to Residence Hall Living online!
Homework

So you want to talk about race

Ijeoma Oluo

SEATTLE UNIVERSITY
Welcome Week Overview

• Reconnect with OA & Small Group friends
• Get reacquainted with campus and all of the resources they learned about at Orientation
• Meet other new and continuing students
• Great opportunity to build community
Sept. 21st Move-In Day Flow

Step 1: Pull up
Step 2: We help you upload the car
Step 3: Check-in and get their keys
Step 4: We will take your items up to the room
Step 5: Get settled!
September 21st

- Residential Student Move-In
- Family Farewell with Fr. Steve 3:15-4:30p

- Students then go onto:
  - Reunions with OAs
  - Floor/Collegium Meetings
  - Social events
Key Welcome Week Dates

• Monday, Sept. 23—Academic Day Gatherings
• Monday, Sept. 23—Convocation and Common Text Book Discussions
• Wednesday, Sept. 25—First Day of Class
Events to Watch

• Back-to-School Target Night
• Decades Dance
• Athletic Games
• Day of REC
First 40 Days

• Critical to a student's persistence, sense of belonging, and success
• Involvement Fair
• Serve Local Block Party
• On-going programs that are opt-in
Welcome Week schedule will be posted on ConnectSU!