

2018-19 Cost of Attendance and Financial Need

To prepare a student's financial aid award, the Student Financial Services Office subtracts the Expected Family Contribution (EFC) as calculated from the information provided on the student's FAFSA, from the estimated cost of attendance, often referred to as the student budget, to determine financial need.

Following are sample student budgets for the 2018-19 nine-month academic year for full-time students, undergraduates enrolled for 12-20 credits, and graduate students enrolled for 6 credits:

Budget Category	Undergraduate Student Living On or Off Campus	Undergraduate Student Living With Parents or Relatives	Graduate Student* Living On or Off Campus
Tuition	$43,785	$43,785	$12,960
Books &amp; Supplies	$1,200	$1,200	$900
Technology Fee	$525	$525	$345
Recreation Fee	$300	$300	$195
Activity Fee	-	-	$30
Room &amp; Board	$12,288	$4,050	$13,500
Personal Expenses	$2,340	$2,340	$2,340
Transportation	$1,170	$1,170	$1,170
Total Budget	$61,608	$53,370	$31,440

**Because enrollment requirements and tuition rates for graduate students vary program-by-program, actual tuition and book costs vary widely from this sample budget.*

After financial need has been determined, Student Financial Services prepares a financial aid award, including as much aid as the student is eligible to receive within the constraints of both the student's need and the availability of funding. Depending on a student's eligibility, a financial aid award will include one, some or all of the following types of aid: scholarships and/or grants, work opportunities and loans.

A student can see the costs and EFC used to prepare his or her financial aid award by logging on to SUOnline and clicking "Cost of Attendance & Estimated Family Contribution" in the "Financial Aid" category of the Student Menu.
