

WHY STUDY SOCIAL WORK?

High Growth Career

Strong job security — one of the fastest growing professions!

Diverse Career Paths

A Bachelor of Social Work prepares you for generalist practice, suitable for a diverse range of careers in fields such as housing, substance use, children & youth, domestic violence, criminal legal systems, hospitals, etc.

1 Year to MSW Degree

With a Bachelor of Social Work, you are eligible for an Advanced Standing program, allowing you to earn a Master of Social Work in just 1 year.

About the BSW Program

BSW students integrate social justice-informed theory, policy, and practice to create change at the individual, community, and societal level

Coursework

Students study in a cohort, taking classes together with critical scholar-practitioners on topics such as:

- ✓ social justice
- ✓ social welfare policy
- ✓ activism & advocacy
- ✓ human behavior & development
- ✓ practice with individuals, families, groups, & organizations
- ✓ anti-oppressive research

Practicum

400 hours of hands-on experience in a community organization prepares students with applicable skills for employment after graduation
