

TAYLOR, Thomas W.

Department of History
4th Floor Casey Bldg.
Seattle University
Seattle, Wa. 98122
(206) 296-5445 (w)
(206) 296-5997 (fax)
twTaylor@seattleu.edu (email)

EDUCATION

BA 1978 St. John's University, MN (summa cum laude)
MA 1983 University of Minnesota
PhD 1988 University of Minnesota
Advisor: Mary Jo Maynes

CURRENT RESEARCH

Modern Travel in World History, (Routledge Press). Publication 2022.

ACADEMIC EXPERIENCE

President, Northwest World History Association, 2016-
Organizer, "Jesuits in World History," Symposium and Teachers' Workshop, Seattle University, January 31- February 1, 2014.
Guest Editor, "Jesuits in World History," World History Connected, October 2013.
Chair, History Department, Seattle University, 1994-2001, 2006- 2007, 2011- 2018
Director, Global Awareness Program, SU, 2008-2015
Affiliated Faculty, International Studies Program, SU, 2008-
Visiting Lecturer, Semester at Sea, Fall, 2007, Spring 2017
Associate Professor, Seattle University, 1994-

RECENT PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

Review for Full Professor, Union College, 2021.
History Department Program Review, Gonzaga University, 2021.
History Department Program Review, University of Portland, 2010, 2017
Workshop Organizer and Facilitator, Developing a World History Curriculum,
Union College, Schenectady, New York, September 14, 2016.
Trip Leader, Seattle University Summer Study Abroad, China, 2015.
Chair and Commentator: "The Jesuit and World History: a Teacher's Workshop,"
World History Association, Costa Rica, July 18, 2014

RECENT HONORS AND AWARDS

Korean Studies Fellowship, 2012
Seattle University, Rev. Louis Gaffney Chair Endowed Chair , 2012-2014
Seattle University, College of Arts and Sciences, Dean's Research Fellowship, 2011, 2016

RECENT PUBLICATIONS

"The Extraordinary Life of an Ordinary Young Man: Jan Kozlowski and the Russian Revolution," World History Connected, (February 2021).

"Just for 'Kicks': The World's Game Comes to the Twin Cities," in Sheldon Anderson, ed., Twin Cities Sports, (Fayetteville, AK: University of Arkansas Press, 2020).

"Jesuits in World History," World History Connected (October 2013.)

Co-authored with Gabrielle Porter, "The Impractical Scheme of a Visionary: Thomas Stevens and the Quest to Travel Round the World on a Bicycle," World History Connected, (June 2013).

"Teaching with Travelers: Integrating Methodology into a College-Level World History Textbook," Journal of Global History, Beijing, China. 2006, (Translated and published in Chinese.)

RECENT CONFERENCE PAPERS AND PRESENTATIONS

"Wilson's Fourteen Points and their Relevance for the 21st Century," Panel Talk, Seattle University, January 16, 2019.

"The Extraordinary Life of an Ordinary Man: Jan Kozlowski and the Russian Revolution," Northwest World History Association, February 16, 2018

"German Aggression and German Leadership," Masters Teachers Workshop, University of Washington, Seattle, WA, August 8, 2017

"Close Encounters: The World on Two Wheels: 1884-1886," Union College Convocation Lecture, Schenectady, NY, September 13, 2016.

"World War One in 3D: The Keystone Stereographic Encyclopedia," World History Association, Ghent Belgium, July 4, 2016.

"World War One: Inevitable Conflict or Tragic Mistake?" Master Teacher Workshop, University of Washington, Jackson School for International Studies, November 18, 2014

“Big History: It’s Certainly Big but is it History?” Seattle University, November 17, 2014.

“The Impractical Scheme of a Visionary: Thomas Stevens and the Quest to Travel Round the World on a Bicycle,” World History Association, Costa Rica, July 18, 2014

PROFESISONAL MEMBERSHIPS

World History Association, 2001-