

Five-Year Hazing Violation Report
Spring Term 2026
Seattle University

June 12, 2026

BACKGROUND

In accordance with Washington State House Bill 1751 (“Sam’s Law”), Seattle University will publicly report hazing violations beginning on August 5, 2022.

The report must include:

- The name of the student organization, athletic team, or living group;
- The date the investigation was initiated;
- The date on which the investigation ended with a finding that a violation occurred;
- A description of the incident;
- The details of the sanctions imposed; and
- The date the student organization, athletic team, or living group was charged with a violation.

The report will not include any personal or identifying information of individual students and is subject to the requirements of the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act, 20 U.S.C. § 1232, et seq. (“FERPA”). Seattle University will maintain reports for five years and post reports on its Hazing Web Page at least 45 calendar days before the start of the fall academic term and at least 10 days before the start of all other academic terms. Investigations that do not result in a finding of formal violations will not be included in the report.

REPORT

Rolling five-year lookback of Seattle University student organizations, athletic teams, or living group found in the past five years to have violated the University's Code of Student Conduct, Antihazing Policy, or state or federal laws relating to hazing or offenses related to alcohol, drugs, sexual assault, or physical assault:
