Sample Reflection Assignment

_for faculty who would like to excuse their classes to attend SUURA_

By Dr. Allison Henrich, Mathematics and Dr. Molly Clark Hilliard, English

Bring a notebook with you to take notes on the following questions, then use the template below to answer the questions in complete, detailed sentences.

1. Which talk(s) did you attend (title, speaker)?

2. Choose one specific talk. In your own words, give a brief description of what the talk was about.

3. What is one thing you learned by watching the talk?

4. What did you find most interesting? For instance, can you transcribe a compelling phrase the speaker used, or describe an interesting experiment that the speaker conducted?

5. Was there any part of the talk you didn't understand or found confusing? Describe how/where/why you got lost.

6. What is one thing the speaker did well as they were presenting (for instance, oral presentation skills, well-designed visuals, good audience interaction)?

7. What is one thing the speaker could do to improve their talk?
