Direct Transfer Associate's Degree (DTA)

Review the two year program of study for Film Studies.

From movies and television to social media and virtual reality, the BA in Film Studies at Seattle U places film, television and media in their cultural, historical and global contexts. The BA explores our image-saturated culture by teaching you about the history, aesthetics, technologies and industries of visual culture and teaching you to make your own creative films. You will be developing critical skills in writing, independent research and historical analysis and acquiring key media literacy skills for your future. Students interested in film production can also study screenwriting, narrative, documentary and experimental filmmaking and take advanced classes in producing, industrial film, editing, sound and cinematography.

Degrees offered: BA, minor
